

The Supreme Trinity Personalities

| Name                                  | Origin                               | Location                                                                                                                                | Works With                                                                                                  | Duties/Future                                                                                        | Function                                                                                                                                  |
|---------------------------------------|--------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| TrinitizedSecrets ofSupremacy | Trinity                              | The Seven SacredWorlds of the Father                                                                                                | Works in groups of10 on each sphere                                                                     | 3 represent the triunedeity – 7 act in eachdivision of specializedactivities.            | Each group of 10 resem-bles that Deity or Deityassociation which is char-acteristic of their domain.                          |
| The Eternals ofDays               | Offspring of theParadise Trinity | One on each of the onemillion Havona Spheres                                                                                        | Frequent visits tothe H.Q. sphere ofthe 7 superuni-verses                                       | preside over thedestinies of the sevensupergovernments.                                      | they are always whollyoriginal and therefore, thesphere under their directionis original in design.                           |
| The Ancientsof Days               | Offspring of theParadise Trinity | Rulers of the 7 super-universes                                                                                                     | in groups of three                                                                                          | to be superseded bythe Supreme Beingand becomingvicegerents.                             | They provide uniform direc-torship of the 7 superuni-verses. They hold the finaljudgement of extinction ofwill creatures. |
| The Perfectionof Days             | Offspring of theParadise Trinity | Preside over the tenmajor sectors of eachsuperuniverse                                                                          | in groups of three –with Divine Counsel-ors, Perfectors ofWisdom, UniversalCensors.         | Mortals must passthrough every one ofthe ten major divisionsof our superuniverse.        | Master of administrativedetails                                                                                                       |
| The Recents ofDays                | Offspring of theParadise Trinity | Preside over the affairsof the minor sectors                                                                                        | Similar to thePerfection of days                                                                        | You will pass throughonly one group ofminor sector trainingspheres.                      | Home to the MasterPhysical Controllers.Concerned with physicalproblems.                                                       |
| The Unions ofDays                 | Offspring of theParadise Trinity | Counselors and advisorsof the Local Universe –report data of a physicalor semi-intelligent natureto the Recents of Days | One on each LocalUniverse represen-ting the Trinity – insome respects, theUniversal Father. | Will function in anenlarged capacity whenthe Local Universe issettled in light and life. | Acts only at the request ofthe local authorities.                                                                                     |
| The Faithfulsof Days              | Offspring of theParadise Trinity | Advisors to theConstellation rulers.                                                                                                | Report directly tothe Unions of Days                                                                    | Trinity-Origin regimestops with theconstellations                                            | Act only as Counselors                                                                                                                    |